VII. Student Representative Report - Micah Bolton

Student survey was sent out to all JR/SR High students. 79 responses.

Students like - six period day, having an increased student voice, Mr. Douglas and his welcoming attitude.

Students have concerns about - hallways without color, would like to have one day a week as virtual, vaping in the bathrooms and dirty bathrooms from students, blocked wifi, parking pass prices, searching of vehicles, staff turnover, doors locking students out at at 7:35am, too much PDA, unweighted GPA.

Students are looking for solutions

VIII. Student Recognition

Smith Elementary - Cayson Weirauch

Heritage School - Makenzie Wetzel

PASS Program - Chloe Tilkins

JR/SR High - Drew Bennett

IX. Principal Report

Mr. LaLonde - absent

Mr. Trapp - staff professional development, journal buddies with 7th and 11th grade English classes, 12th graders working on Romeo & Juliet, booth updates with painting, Coming Home - many compliments from staff, students and DJ, students helped with cleanup, looking forward to prom - need chaperone on Michigan Princess.

Mrs. Kunzelman - writing research papers and seniors working on senior portfolios, teachers attended mental health class to better assist students.

Mr. Edwards Presentation - Finished the mid-year screening cycles with alphabet knowledge, nonsense words and reading fluency. Scores are up and Smith Elementary is looking forward to spring testing and continued increase in scores.

At risk students are seeing a literacy coach one time per week. There are now four teachers working with this at-risk group.

Positivity Project - professional development day going well and staff believe this is a good program.

March is Reading Month - Theme is Blast off into Reading with virtual field trips, mystery guest readers, celebrations, CADL visits and partnership

Upcoming

X. Superintendent Report

Received an early childhood grant for $30,000 for special education inclusion and aides.

Third interview for curriculum director conducted.

Proposal for the future. Will discuss in the work session.

Negotiations for custodians, administrators and one individual contract.

Student Resource Officer - Stockbridge received a grant for $93,000 for three years. Will work with the village, townships and Stockbridge police chief to implement.

CMAC League - presentation given last Monday. We haven't heard results yet, but should by the end of the month.

There was a bus issue last week and students were evacuated for safety thus making the school bus late to drop off students. Staff is working on better communication with parents and updating the website.
