- VI. Board of Education Comments
None
- VII. Board Committee Reports
Curriculum Committee Report - we received a preview of the data to be presented tonight.
- VIII. Student Representative - JayLee Chapman

All fall sports have come to an end. Girls Volleyball got to districts against Lumen Christi. Cross Country had three students make it to states; Lucy Chapman, Emily Swaoki, Will Gancer. A group of students attended the Jostens Leadership conference in Haslett. The school has brought back music Mondays where music is playing throughout the halls before the first bell rings. The Leadership class did an awesome job on the haunted stage. It was very well received by students.

IX. Student Athletic Recognition - Ben Kruse

Brandon Hamlett - The first member of the 1000 lbs club dead lift as well as the new record holder for Rushing Touchdowns in a single game with 6

Will Gancer - placed 21st at the State Meet for Cross Country.

Boys Soccer are the league Champions; which is a first in school history. We hosted the district soccer tournament. Cohen Griffith - first team all conference, Daniel Villegas earned an honorable mention. There are a number of dual sporters on this team as well. Girls Volleyball - had districts semi at Lumen Christi came back from 0-2 to make it to the district game.

X. Assessment Presentation - Mrs. Hodgson Assessment Presentation

XI. BTAM Presentation - Ms. Jennett BTAM Presentation

XII. Superintendent Report

There is a narrative on the old business list in your board notes. I am very appreciative for the community support on passing the bond. AVB and The Collaborative will be in this week to line up the first stage. The focus will be on the items that are most dire. The facilities committee will be involved.

Alyssa Randall has been Invited to come to the work session in November to present an International trip to Europe. Financials to be on the agenda in the work session. The November work session will also include dinner with the leadership class before their presentation.
